KIMBERLY NOVAK, local author and spiritual director, shares, "The story, though fictional, arose from personal experiences in my life. Bella's journey is a reflection of countless blessings and treasured friendships."

Kimberly Novak's work of Middle-Grade Fiction is a beacon of hope. It aims to inspire the younger generation into meaningful experiences of prayer, while urging readers of ALL ages "not ever to forget or give up who you once were; you needed to go through the storm because that is where God chose to meet you."

"The images, one after another, are so engaging that I kept smiling in anticipation of what might come next." – Cleveland Ohio, Religious Educator, Speaker

"This is a beautiful story, so God centered and so beautifully explains His love and care for us." – Eastlake Ohio Grandmother, Sunday School Teacher
